

Tell us what we are doing well, or if you are not happy with us

EasyRead version of Everything you need to know about: Complaints, Compliments and Feedback

We are Torus.

We want to give you a good service.

We want to make sure your home is safe and good to live in.

We want to treat you fairly and with respect.

If you are not happy with our services or with something in your home, tell us quickly so we can fix it.

What is a complaint?

A complaint is when you tell us about something that we have done badly, or you are not happy about.

It is OK to make a complaint.

If we make a mistake or something goes wrong, we need to know.

If you tell us what is wrong, we can try to put things right.

How to make a complaint

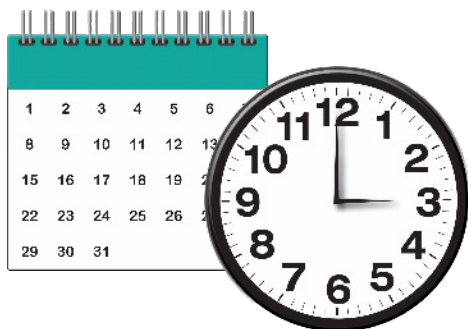

The fast way to sort things out is to phone Torus Customer Hub, customer service team.

We will ask you to:

- tell us about the problem

- the date and time the problem happened

- what you want us to do to make the problem better.

You will need to tell us your name and address.

We will try and fix things straight away.

If we cannot put things right quickly, we will tell you when we can fix things.

What happens after you make a complaint?

We want to sort out your complaint as soon as we can.

We will work with you to put things right.

If we cannot put things right straight away, we will:

Stage 1

Look into your complaint and tell you what we find out. Try to do this in 10 working days or less.

Stage 2

If you are not happy with what we told you in Stage 1, you can ask us to look at it again.

We will then try and fix things in 20 working days or less.

If you do not believe we have put things right, you can go to The Housing Ombudsman for help:

An ombudsman is like a judge. They help sort our problems between a government organisation and problems you are having with them.
